Introduction

The PTT Group Companies were placed into liquidation by the High Court at Auckland (the “Court”) pursuant to section 241(2)(c) of the Companies Act 1993 (the “Act”) at 11.56am on 11 December 2015. John Fisk and David Bridgman were appointed joint and several liquidators of the PTT Group Companies. On 10 December 2020 David Bridgman resigned as liquidator of the PTT Group Companies and was replaced by Marcus McMillan. Marcus McMillan subsequently resigned as liquidator on 15 October 2021 and Richard Nacey was appointed as joint liquidator alongside John Fisk.

John Fisk and Marcus McMillan were also the receivers of Mr Steven Robertson, and the Steven Robertson Family Trust. These receiverships ceased following the filing of the receivers’ final statutory report with the Court on 20 July 2021.

Conduct of the liquidations in the Preceding 6 Months

We set out below a review of matters dealt with since our last report: -

Recovery Actions

As reported in our preceding liquidators' report, the Court approved the distribution method proposed by the receivers and liquidators as well as ordered a number of procedural matters relating to the distribution and the administration. On 12 May 2021 a distribution of 59.71 cents in the dollar was paid against agreed claims from those creditors who had previously filed claim in the liquidation and were entitled to a distribution.

No funds remain available for further distributions.

Statement of Realisation and Distribution

We attach, as Appendices B through D, statements of receipts and payments in the liquidations for the period of the liquidations. Where no statement is provided, there have been no receipts or payments to date for the entity in question.

Proposals for Completing the Liquidation

Following payment of the distribution it was necessary for the liquidations to remain ongoing for at least 12 months to deal with any unclaimed distributions. The liquidators are currently in the process of dealing with unclaimed distributions owing to four creditors totalling $34,676. The liquidators anticipate issuing a final report within the next reporting period.
