John advised that there was limited update since the last creditors' committee meeting. The cyclone and impacts to the East Coast have become the immediate focus for MBIE which is understandable.

Sam advised that he meet with MBIE and the conversation on RAL was positive.

Robert commented that he did not think a liquidation was a viable option for stakeholders.

Extension of the watershed meeting was discussed considering cyclone and MBIE's focus pivoted towards those issues. Malcolm noted that costs would need to be considered but was supportive.

John advised that RAL was tracking on budget and the focus would be on resolving the Season Pass campaign launch to provide confidence to the market. Visitor numbers were discussed.

End Time: 10:26am
